Captain Andrew’s Column

‘Come on get up!’ That’s one of the things I remember from my mum. She may have been cross that I was not up and about, but she said it because she cared and loved me. Today we celebrate the love and care we have received in our lives, particularly Mums, but we should celebrate anyone who has helped us along our life journey. There are many accounts of strong women in The Bible and today we thank God for all those strong women who have been such an influence on us. Not all people will have positive memories of our mothers, and today can be a tough day for some, but we can draw strength from God’s continuing love and care. Romans 12:10-13 Love in Action: Be devoted to one another in love. Honour one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with the Lord’s people who are in need. Practice hospitality

These words from Paul sum up what we see in mothers and why we celebrate them today. Happy Mothers’ Day
