Today we’re going forward from Pentecost into Acts 3 and looking at possibly the first double act; Peter and John. There is of course a benefit in working as a pair; I’m sure you’ve heard the saying ‘2 heads are better than one’, well if we look at Biblical History it was practice to send Disciples out in pairs. We concentrate on our 2 and see what happened to them as they used the Power that The Holy Spirit had given them; and what a result! The people who witnessed it were amazed; again, we see that when people witnessed what was carried out by people with the Holy Spirit’s power they reacted, and why not! We can achieve so much for God if we claim His power and can use it to proclaim His gospel and point people to Jesus; just like Peter did as we read in Acts 3. Did you recognise the 2 sayings? Yes, Laurel and Hardy and The 2 Ronnies.
