The Captain’s Column

‘Seven!’ Where have you heard that? Many if not all of us would know what TV show we hear that on. Today we’re going to hear about another ‘Seven’ in Acts 6. You may know that in the Bible, Seven is considered the perfect number; not 10 as in Strictly! The seven we read about are the men appointed when there was a dispute about food being given out. Like any new organisation this new Church needed some structure and order. Questions were raised about the practical things that were needed and the leaders got together and decided to appoint men that could do the practical things that the leaders were currently spending time on. This was not because they didn’t want to do it, it was all about their Gifts for leadership, and teaching etc. Any Church needs all the gifts to enable it to thrive. It’s the same for us, there are loads of people who with their skills and gifts help us to thrive, and I want to say a big thankyou to you all. I pray that we continue to grow in numbers and spiritually and with our God given gifts we can all do our part.
