Andrew’s Column ‘What if...this or that happened?’ That’s something we often ask ourselves, in many circumstances. What if that goal had gone in, or was saved....what if I’d said that...what if I’d gone that way’ Our lives are full of ‘What ifs’. So, at the end of 2023 do you have any particular ‘what ifs’ from the year? However, we can also look forward and say what if I do this in the new year 2023? We are looking at Isaiah today and what I think is a familiar passage; Is 43: where the writer says that we should forget the former things; ‘Do not dwell on the past’ he says. Well we all like doing that don’t we. Looking back at memories of how things used to be, the glory years some call it. God has our lives planned for us and as Jerimiah says they are not to harm us. Jer 29:11. So at the passing of the old to the new, 2023 to 2024 let’s reflect on the past year but look forward to the ‘New’. We’re in His hands as the song reminds us. Happy New Year to you all
