Captain Andrew's Column

'Behave!' I'm sure I'm not the only one to have been told that, as a child but also as an adult! We all in different ways, have to behave don't we, there are written and unwritten rules that we adhere to. Paul speaks in Romans 12 about how we are to behave and live our lives. It is a plan for Christian living and some of what Paul says is not easy to live by; love and feed your enemies, for one. Today we are celebrating and thinking about Candidates on this year's Candidates Sunday. Offering for leadership however that looks; full time or within the Corps involves rules that must be undertaken. Paul also talks about making sacrifices in our lives and in our service to God. The challenge to us? what sacrifices do we make or could we make in order to serve God better? It's not all about full time ministry, there are many ways that we can serve God other than full time. We do pray for those thinking about leadership and know that God will always provide resources allowing us to fulfil our potential.
