Andrews Column ‘I don’t believe you!’ Do we say that to people when they tell us something. I think at the moment a lot of people maybe saying that at the telly or radio, as Politian’s vie for our attention and vote! We of course have to make up our own mind on all this and decide whether what they tell us is the truth. We as Christians may have experience of people not believing us. Today it seems that ‘Faith’ is very much in the background of people’s concerns. People are still very spiritual but are cynical about Church and what we do and what we believe. There are of course people who pry on people and trick them into following them and their beliefs, unfortunately the Church is not exempt. We’ll be considering today ‘Who do you believe’; a few weeks ago we looked at ‘Who do you stand for?’ and we develop that thinking today. Jesus said ‘I am the truth and the light, no one comes to the father [God] except through me.’ John 14. Ain’t that the truth?
