We're thinking of Food today; 'we think about it all the time' you may say! And yes, perhaps we do, possibly too much? Jesus describes Himself as 'The Bread of Life', meaning that what he provided fully sustains us for life when physical food does not and actually deteriorates; something we also see in the OT story of the Manna provided by God to the people in the Desert. Signs are also something we look for; we want some sort of proof to support our faith. Jesus alludes to this when He says that the people are only following Him because of the miracle of feeding them with a few fish and bread loaves. We know that signs are there to help and guide us, point us in the right direction. Spiritual signs are similar, I think we all would love some signs today, but there are plenty of signs showing us God's provision, we just have to follow them.
