Major Jo's Column

We hear a lot these days about, living well and quality of life. While we all want to get the best we can out of life many people around us only think of this life here with no consideration of eternity. We should be thinking of our existence as a whole, not just the here and now. There is no point in having a life of luxury and pleasure for the few years we have on earth if we lose our heavenly blessings and spend eternity wishing we had done things differently.

The purpose of our existence on earth is preparation for heaven, it has been put very succinctly in the phrase "to know God and make him known". If we make this our whole purpose in life, we will be living well. This may mean missing out on some of the comforts and pleasures of life but it is a very small sacrifice to make to receive salvation and all the heavenly blessings that go with it.

Hebrews 12:2 "Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning it's shame and sat down at the right hand of God."
