Major Andrew’s Column

Jesus is alive! We regularly use words like extraordinary, remarkable, and amazing for far lesser events, like football results or celebrity banner headlines or what a soap star’s wearing at a film première. What words do justice to today’s awesome, cosmic event? Hope is one. The resurrection offers overwhelming hope for us in a secure relationship with the resurrected living Jesus. Easter confirms that there is something else here, something beyond ourselves – God, and He wants, commands us to action in spreading His hope message. After all the reflection of lent; especially Holy Week. Easter is a dramatic amazing WOW! Our response? We need to commit ourselves to witness to the risen Jesus; Mary and the disciples don’t really understand what’s going on, but they remain faithful. After a time of grief and bewilderment, they encounter the risen Jesus. Sometimes our actions as Christians follow on from times of waiting, waiting on God, listening, looking for and recognising Jesus. What we can be assured of is that whatever we are going through, we have hope in the resurrected Jesus. He is alive!
