It’s a week after Easter and all the celebrations; and we had reason to celebrate with our 4 Adherents. We’re sort of back to normal but today is far from Low for us. We have the visit of the International Staff Band and we’re really looking forward to their ministry today after the wonderful concert last evening. Today is going to be full of praise to God as well as times of reflection and prayer. Many of the Psalms are full of Praise, but they also have parts that are reflective. Psalm 40 speaks about waiting patiently for God, but also about trusting in Him, and in v3 how God puts a new song in our mouth, ‘a hymn of praise to our God’. We’re looking forward to sharing hymns of praise today, in this morning’s Worship meeting and this afternoon’s festival. I want to thank all those who have made this weekend of Praise possible, all the arrangements at the Hall, cooking and food preparation. Also, for the work and ministry of the ISB under the leadership of BM Stephen Cobb.
