Major Andrew’s Column

It seems that if anything is proposed; a small change in program or activities or a Nuclear Power Station, new road, these will face opposition. It’s the fear of the unknown that motivates the passionate ‘No’ or ‘Not near me’ reactions in people. In scripture there are people who faced opposition to what God wanted them to do; from the Old testament; Jonah, Abraham to the new Testament Jesus and the Disciples. Today there is opposition to Christians; 1 in 7 Christians are persecuted for their faith, perhaps we don’t appreciate that here is the UK as other than some antagonism towards us, we don’t face real opposition that some do in other countries. We may face opposition in our families or workplace from those who don’t understand what and why we believe. Today we are exploring Courage in facing Opposition. We look at Caleb and Joshua who were sent out to check out this new land God was sending them to. These two trusted God promise that He was with them. That promise is still available to us today when we are facing opposition however that may look. We just have to ask!
