Major Andrew’s Column

‘..and now the end is near’ Frank (Sinatra) goes on to sing something about the final curtain! Perhaps this is not my final curtain yet, but this is my final Sunday at Ipswich before I set out on a new part of my life’s journey; Retirement. It all seems surreal really, nearly 50 years of working in various roles secular and spiritual is now ending, who knows what is next? We all face something similar in our life, different seasons at various places. I shared with the band Ecclesiastes 3 where it says that there is a time for everything. The Byrds sang this in a 60’s single Turn. Ecclesiastes continues that God ‘has made everything beautiful in its time, we don’t understand what God has done and there is nothing better than to be happy and to do good while they live.’ That sums up my time with the SA. People have asked me if I am looking forward to retirement and yes, I am, but I will miss all of you who have been a constant part of my time here in Ipswich. So, I basically want to say thank you for all you’ve been and done and God bless you all in the future.
