Most of the time, this question relates to choice of career, rather than character. Today, we are thinking about becoming like Christ, and being transformed by his presence in us. Philippians 1:6 says, "Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." This verse is a powerful reminder of God's faithful, ongoing work in our lives. Written by the Apostle Paul while imprisoned, it reflects his deep conviction that God’s plans for His people are not just temporary but eternal. These words offer us a profound assurance: the work God has started in each believer is guaranteed to be completed. In our message today we will look at a famous encounter with Jesus that resulted in a profound transformation for one man and in turn his whole community.
