It seems to be coming thick and fast these days – or does it just feel like it because I am getting older? While some changes have a consensus that they are either good or bad most come with mixed blessings: they are good for some but not others and agreement is difficult to be found. We often find that changes bring differing opinions between the established church and general society or even within churches. When this happens, how do we work out what is right? We need to seek guidance from an unchanging source, one that is constant and reliable. The Bible should be our manual for life governing all our words, actions and attitudes. When everything around us is changing and we have opinions pulling us this way and that, this is the only thing we can truly rely on. 2 Timothy 3:16&17 All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.
