If you would like to take some flowers home with you or for a friend a donation to cover the cost of the flowers would be appreciated.	Major Sandra’s Column Harvest is very much the time when we give our Praise and Thanks to the Lord. Today we will be considering what the eyes of the potato, the ears of the Corn, the hand of bananas and the heart of the cabbage can teach us. Some fruit and vegetables probably started life as a seed, which then blossomed and grew, with tender loving care. How does our garden grow? As Christians, we had a seed sown in our lives and hopefully it has and is continuing to grow. But, are we also continually sowing seeds by our words and deeds. We can be sowing seeds in someone’s life everytime we speak to them, at school, at work, during our leisure activities or at army activities. If we sow those seeds in faith, then one day they will begin to grow and we will reap the harvest. May the love of Jesus be seen in everything we say and do and the praise and thanks be given to him.
