Major Stephen’s Column

Welcome to Advent! Have you noticed anything new happening?

TV adverts now include something happening towards the end of next month. People are putting twinkling, decorative lights up on the outside of their homes. Decorated trees are making an appearance. There is a particular type of greetings card in the shops that haven’t been around in these quantities for nearly a year now.

Have you spotted the signs? Today will be all about spotting the signs; and how good we are at doing so.

POST BOX

We have decided to combine the two Christmas card schemes together this year. If you are sending a card to the CORPS please address to IPSWICH Corps. If you are sending to individuals, please include full name(s) to help with sorting and delivery. Our young people will be managing the post box. Donations to Corps Funds
