Some of you will have lived through the Second World War and will remember the sound of bombs overhead as you spent time in an air raid shelter. Also, of missing family members who had gone out to fight and not knowing if they would return. Part of our meeting this morning is going to include the ‘Parable of the Camel’. It is a parable about how easily arguments can begin and how God can use just one person to bring peace, when they are prepared to share what they have. May we all remember and make the words of St Francis of Assisi our prayer this Remembrance Sunday: Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love.
