Major Sandra’s Column

I wonder, if when you were at school, they picked two team Captains who then chose who they wanted to be on their side. Were you chosen at the beginning or left to the end?

God doesn't pick his team, the people to work for him, in the way sporty people do in school. The Bible shows that God often picks the most unexpected people to do his work, and he can single out any one of us and say to us, as he did to Mary, 'I choose you.' If we reply, 'Who, me?' we need to remember what the angel told Mary: 'Nothing will be impossible with God.'

A pair of black gloves left in the hall a couple of weeks ago are in the Office
