Previously, Jesus had resolutely set out for Jerusalem. There are some helpful definitions of the word, resolutely. Here are some paraphrases: Jesus set out for Jerusalem in an admirably purposeful manner. Jesus determined to set out for Jerusalem. Jesus’ unwavering manner caused him to set out for Jerusalem. According to Luke, there are approximately 10 chapters between this decision to set out for Jerusalem and Jesus riding into Jerusalem on a donkey on the Sunday before Passover. His time had come and would now be in sharp focus. Jesus would now draw attention to himself like never before. This became a turning point in the life of Jesus. Our King is on his way; let this be a turning point in our lives as we receive our redeeming King!
