I wonder what difference they have made in your life since you first realised their significance. I wonder what affect they still have. Today, we will be considering what we will do with the rest of our lives. As William Booth wrote in one song, ‘And now... the rest of my days’. We will be looking at John the Baptist’s challenge to the Jews who were going to him in their droves to be baptised. He challenged them that the ceremony itself meant nothing without a decision and the determination to live right. He challenged his listeners, of all types, to live better lives, more focussed on others than themselves; to be content, honest and to have integrity. As another song states, ‘Now is the time for us...’ “The Prayer Tree has been revised. The prayers placed on the tree will be added to the prayer group, then removed from the tree after one month.”
